SUBPOENA

Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”) is the respondent in the above-captioned adjudicative proceeding brought by Complaint Counsel in the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission (“CPSC” or “Commission”). Complaint Counsel asserts certain claims under the Consumer Product Safety Act (“CPSA”).

Amazon believes that the Government Accountability Office (“GAO”) possesses information or knowledge that is relevant to the claims and defenses of the parties in the above-captioned matter, as set forth below. The Commission has authorized the issuance of this Subpoena in this matter pursuant to Sections 15 and 27(b)(3)-(4) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 2064 and 2076(b)(3)-(4), respectively, and 16 C.F.R. § 1025.38.

The subpoena requires that you produce documents.

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- A. The Commission’s rules for adjudications govern this Subpoena. 16 C.F.R. § 1025.38. Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1025.38 sets forth procedures for motions to quash or modify this Subpoena.
- B. This Subpoena shall be answered by you.
- C. The public disclosure of any information provided to the Commission under this Subpoena shall be governed by the Protective Order entered in this adjudicative proceeding on February 7, 2022. This includes Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order, which states: “Any party seeking the production of material via subpoenas to third parties shall provide the non-requesting party with a copy of the material produced and provide the non-requesting party with a thirty-day period within which to designate any produced material as Confidential Information in accordance with this order. The party requesting such material shall treat all of the material produced as Confidential Information until the non-requesting party has made its designations or the designation period expires, whichever is earlier.”

- D. Submit documents in response to this Subpoena, and direct any questions regarding this Subpoena, to Sarah L. Wilson (swilson@cov.com) and Stephen P. Anthony (santhony@cov.com) at Covington & Burling LLP.
- E. Documents should be provided electronically in a way that preserves metadata and relationships among attachments, and that includes a native file format and a load file.
- F. Each document production request seeks production of all documents described herein, and any attachments thereto, in your possession, custody, or control, or in the possession, custody, or control of any of your attorneys, employees, agents, or representatives, and all documents and any attachments that you or any of your attorneys, employees, agents, or representatives have the legal right to obtain, or have the ability to obtain from sources under your or their control.
- G. The words “and” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively, as necessary, to make the request inclusive rather than exclusive. The word “including” shall be construed to mean without limitation. The words “any” and “all” shall be construed to make the request inclusive rather than exclusive.
- H. The use of the past tense shall include the present tense, and the use of the present tense shall include the past tense, to make all definitions and discovery requests inclusive rather than exclusive. The singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
- I. To the extent that you withheld, based upon a claim of privilege, any information or documents (including electronic records) that would have been responsive to any information or document production requests contained in the Subpoena, provide the following information for any document withheld, specify the privilege claimed and the factual basis you contend supports the assertion of the privilege, and the date, nature, and subject matter of the document; the author, preparer, addressee/recipient, and custodian of the document; the present location of the document, and the number of pages, attachments, appendices, and exhibits to the document.
- J. In an affidavit accompanying the response to the Subpoena, you must include a statement, signed under oath or affirmation, indicating that a diligent search of all files, records, and databases for responsive information and documents has been made, that the information contained in the responses to the questions is complete and accurate, and that you have produced true copies of all the documents requested in the Subpoena.

- K. Your obligation to respond to the Subpoena is a continuing one. As additional information becomes available to you that is responsive to the Subpoena, you must submit that information immediately.

II. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of the Subpoena, the following definitions apply:

1. “GAO” means the Government Accountability Office and any of its current or former employees.
2. “GAO Report” means the report issued by the GAO on or about November 19, 2020, entitled Consumer Product Safety Commission: Actions Needed to Improve Processes for Addressing Product Defect Cases (GAO-21-56), and available at <https://www.gao.gov/assets/gao-21-56.pdf>. The report lists Alicia Puente Cackley as the “GAO Contact.”
3. “Person” means any natural person, entity, group, corporation, company, partnership, joint venture, firm, association, proprietorship, agency, board, authority, commission, officer, government agency, or other business or legal entity, whether private or governmental, and whether foreign or domestic.
4. “Document(s)” shall be interpreted as the term is used in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34, and includes electronically stored information.
5. “Relating to” or “related to” shall mean consisting of, referring to, describing, discussing, constituting, evidencing, containing, mentioning, concerning, pertaining to, citing, summarizing, analyzing, or bearing any logical or factual connection to the matter discussed.

III. SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM

You are directed to produce electronically, to the email addresses provided in the Instructions above, within twenty (20) days of service of the subpoena, copies of all records in your possession, custody, or control responsive to the following request:

1. Documents or data relating to the GAO Report or to the GAO performance audit that led to the preparation and publication of the GAO Report, including, but not limited to:
 - a. documents or data received, generated, considered, or relied upon by GAO in the preparation of the GAO Report or in the formation of GAO’s findings, conclusions, or recommendations, including interview notes, data summaries, or compilations generated or prepared by GAO in connection with the performance audit or GAO Report;

- b. communications between GAO and CPSC relating to the GAO Report or performance audit; and
- c. documents or data generated by or provided to the GAO relating to the GAO Report subsequent to the Report's release, such as documents relating to the status of any response to the GAO Report's recommendations.

For the avoidance of doubt, this document request does not seek (a) copies of draft reports; (b) copies of individual Monthly Progress Reports; or (c) individually identifiable manufacturer-specific or product-specific information subject to Section 6 of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2055.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION

The undersigned, an authorized official of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, has hereto set her hand and caused the seal of the Commission to be affixed at Bethesda, Maryland, this _____ day of _____, 2022.
